

Curriculum Vitae of
Mandeep Singh Chahil
713 Grainger Street
Fort Worth, Texas 76104
Phone: (817) 336-3968

EDUCATION

Fellow in Clinical Neurophysiology – Neuromuscular Track with Neuro-intraoperative Monitoring Training, July 2014-June 2015, Dept. of Neurology, University of Texas Health Science Center, Houston, Texas. Director, Clinical Neurophysiology Fellowship Program: Thy Nguyen, M.D.

Resident in Adult Neurology, July 2011-June 2014, University of Texas Health Science Center, Houston, Texas. Chairman: James Grotta, M.D.

Resident Physician, July 2010-June 2011, SUNY Upstate Medical University, Syracuse, New York. Director: Deborah Young Bradshaw, M.D.

B.B.A. International Business, Pre-med, George Washington University, Washington, D.C., May 2004

LICENSURE/ CERTIFICATIONS

Licensed in the state of Texas to practice Medicine
Board Certified in Neurology
American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology (Member American board of medical specialties)

WORK

Director of Neurology Program, Baylor Scott and White Institute for Rehabilitation at Fort Worth; October 2018-present. Comprehensive evaluation and management of neurologic conditions with emphasis on traumatic brain injury and stroke patients.

Stroke Program Medical Director, Baylor Scott and White All Saints Hospital at Fort Worth; March 2016-present. Implementation of guidelines for optimal stroke care, education of staff, and ensuring program meets the JCAHO quality measures to maintain certification.

Medical Director, Elevate Health Clinics; August 2017-present. Comprehensive management and treatment of brain concussion/traumatic brain injury patients.

Partner, Neurologist, Tarrant Neurology Consultants; July 2015-present. Treatment and management of all patients with a wide variety of acute or chronic neurological complaints or disorders in the clinical or acute care setting, such as hospital or emergency department.

PUBLICATION

West Nile Virus Associated Brachial Plexopathy, British Medical Journal, March 30, 2016